Dear IPMBA Delegates and Guests:

Welcome to the City of Tampa! It gives me great pleasure to extend our heartfelt greetings to you on behalf of the Tampa Police Department. We are honored you chose Tampa to host the 24th Annual International Police Mountain Bike Association Conference.

While in our city, we hope you would appreciate Tampa's treasure in its entirety. It's easy to find a vast array of diverse entertainment, attractions, and historic districts that will make your trip enjoyable. We take pride in our hospitable culture, heritage, and the innovative measures we have taken to keep our city safe; we hope you will take the time while you are here to experience it all.

We also want to make sure we are an integral part of the convention's success. Please let us know how the Tampa Police Department can assist you in making sure your visit to the Tampa Bay area is both pleasurable and safe.

Sincerely,

Jane Castor
Chief of Police
Dear IPMBA Conference Attendee:

On behalf of the IPMBA board, staff, members, and conference attendees, I would like to extend my sincere thanks to the Tampa Police Department and their partnering agencies for hosting the conference. We appreciate the support of Mayor Bob Buckhorn, Chief Jane Castor, Assistant Chief John Bennett, and the Tampa Police Department, without which this conference would not have been possible. We also appreciate the access to training facilities provided by Chief Paul F. Sireci, Tampa Airport Police Department, and Security Director Kevin Howell, University of Tampa Department of Campus Safety. We are grateful for the generous in-kind and financial contributions from Tampa Bay and Company, the Tampa Police Benevolent Association, and the Tampa business community. Last, but not least, we thank the members of the Tampa Police Explorer Post and Steve and Laura Toll of ISM Saddles.

IPMBA would like to recognize the members of the Command Staff, identifiable by their blue Bratwear shirts, who will be seen working hard to ensure you have an excellent experience. Special thanks to Tampa Police Sergeant Eddy Croissant, a long-time IPMBA member and staunch supporter who has been the driving force behind IPMBA’s return to Florida for the first time since 1993. He and key committee members Officers Judy Diaz, Kristina Duran, and Jesse Horn have invested many hours and much effort into the planning and implementation of this conference. Their efforts have been supported by others too numerous to mention, but whose contributions are nonetheless essential to the success of the conference.

Finally, IPMBA thanks you for attending the 24th Annual IPMBA Conference. We recognize that many of you have overcome such obstacles as staffing shortages, training budget reductions, and travel restrictions to be here. We appreciate the priority you place on the quality training programs offered by IPMBA, and we are confident the experience will exceed your expectations.

Welcome to Tampa!

Maureen Becker
Executive Director

P.S. See you in Chandler, Arizona, April 11-18, 2015, for the 25th Annual IPMBA Conference!

Join Deputy Superintendent Neil Blackington of Boston EMS for an in-depth look at the events of April 15, 2013, when terrorists struck near the finish line of the Boston Marathon.

This program will examine the bombings and emphasize the importance of pre-planning, training, and operational discipline during a prolonged, multi-agency event. You will gain a new appreciation for the importance of pre-planning, multiple casualty management, and inter-agency communications and operations.

Incidents like the Boston Marathon bombings highlight the need for training and preparation for events of any size.

This is a multi-media presentation and portions may contain graphic material.

Deputy Superintendent Blackington has been in public safety for more than 40 years, including 35 with Boston EMS. His career spans Field Operations, Special Operations, and Special Projects.
