Dear IPMBA Members:

On behalf of the City of Delaware and the Delaware Police Department, I am pleased to welcome you to Central Ohio for the International Police Mountain Bike Association’s 27th Annual Conference.

The City of Delaware is the county seat for Delaware County, situated approximately 16 miles north of Columbus, OH. Delaware has experienced significant population growth over the past 20 years, and that growth has also brought a diverse blend of shopping, restaurants and entertainment to the area. Delaware is the host of the Ironman Ohio, a 70.3 distance Ironman, and also host to the Little Brown Jug, one of the crown jewels of harness racing. I am sure you will enjoy downtown Delaware, which is a vibrant collection of restaurants and shops. Your food choices range from wood fired pizza to gourmet hamburgers to sushi, and there are several craft brew establishments as well. Check out some antiques, grab a cigar, or look for your favorite vinyl record – downtown Delaware has something to appeal to just about anyone.

The Delaware Police Department has been committed to police bicycle patrol for many years. Our experience is that bicycle patrol is well received by our residential communities and an asset during our special events. We regularly run training that draws students from law enforcement agencies from several states and Canada. We are excited to be hosting the conference and hope that you ride, learn and have a great experience that will enhance your bike patrol skills for years to come.

I would like to thank DPD Officer Robert Hatcher, who has been tireless in coordinating the conference on our behalf; along with Sgt. Adam Willauer, and Ofc. Adrian Foust. I would also like to thank our partners in public safety at the Delaware County Sheriff’s Office, Ohio Wesleyan University Public Safety, Dublin Police Department, Delaware Fire Department, Delaware County EMS, Delaware County EMA and the Columbus Regional Airport Authority Police Department. We all hope you have a great conference. Welcome and enjoy!

Sincerely,

Bruce Pijanowski
Chief of Police
Dear IPMBA Conference Attendee:

Welcome to Delaware, Ohio, for the 27th Annual IPMBA Conference. We are excited to be holding IPMBA’s first university campus-based conference at Ohio Wesleyan University and to be introducing a new, compressed format.

On behalf of the IPMBA board, staff, members, and conference attendees, I would like to extend my sincere thanks to the Delaware Police Department and the Ohio Wesleyan University Department of Public Safety for hosting the conference. We appreciate the support of Mayor Carolyn Kay Riggle and the City Council, Delaware Police Chief Bruce Pijanowski, OWU Public Safety Director Robert Wood, the Delaware Fire Department, the Delaware County Sheriff’s Office, Delaware County EMA, Delaware County EMS, Dublin Police Department, Columbus Airport Police, and Columbus Regional Airport Authority. We are grateful for the generous in-kind and financial contributions from Delaware’s business community, and we extend a special thanks to Main Street Delaware, 84 Lumber, Barley Hopsters, Byers Subaru of Dublin, Fraternal Order of Eagles #376, Meijer, Safeguard Printing and Promotional Products, and Sam Dong Ohio.

IPMBA would like to recognize the members of the Command Staff, identifiable by their Bratwear shirts, who will be seen working hard to ensure you have an excellent experience. Special thanks to Delaware Patrolman Bob Hatcher, whose dedication to IPMBA and persistence resulted in this “paradigm shift” in the conference format. He and committee members Ron Burkitt, Adrian Foust, Sean Franks, Pete Gomia, Mark Jackson, Renae Rice, Ramon Walls, Jon Weirich, Adam Willauer, and Bill Zoller, have invested many hours into the planning and implementation of this conference. Their efforts have been supported by others too numerous to mention, but whose contributions are nonetheless valued.

Finally, IPMBA thanks you for attending the 27th Annual IPMBA Conference. We recognize that many of you have overcome such obstacles as staffing shortages, training budget reductions, and travel restrictions to be here. We appreciate the priority you place on the quality training programs offered by IPMBA, and we are confident the experience will exceed your expectations.

Welcome to Delaware!

Maureen Becker
Executive Director

P.S. See you next year...May 7-12, 2018...Biloxi, Mississippi!
